

This is the product of my fishing trip down the 27 pools of the River of Hidden Beliefs in the state of Lost Consciousness on the way to the Park.

- John J. (Jack) Bonjura

I went fishing today
At the River of Hidden Beliefs
Persistence paid off
I caught myself

The bait was relationships
The cast – True
The strike was heavy
A good one hooked

Ah! Trust – you monster you
Fight though you may
I'm landin' you today

Another cast
Another hit
Worthyness!!! – Whew!?
This one tore up the place
Up the river, down the river
A truly monumental chase

Fight though it did
I brought it in
Tired and weak – yet
They stirred a passion within

Okay creation – thanks a lot!
Now I'm gonna do a tape to 25
Send in the Guides...
Questions I've got

Okay Bob – let 'er rip
I'm settled in
I've got a grip
Determined that's me
Pissed off too
I'd thought I was finished with these

Here we go
Up the scale
No sign of anything

To 27 – NOTHING

Nothing, huh!
I'll catch on the way down
Nothing?? – no guides – no answers
Now who's the clown?

So, talk with my crewmates
What's their take?
Tell 'em the story
Where's the mistake?

Okay! – Sure! – Make it simple4
It's not creation's problem
It's It's Shoot!?!
Mine

Now, ask the group
For feedback and help
I know gratitude is in there somewhere
Maybe that's my next bar tool

And, so I did
Me! – I asked for help
You can too!

Thank you TMI
Thank you Bob
For the courage to face the river
And those ghost-like questions, too!

As a last note,
For those who care
I released those big fish
They're back in the air

So good luck you anglers
Who follow me still
Take a cast
Go for the thrill
The excitement, adventure
To catch you bog ones too!

Peace is the product

On the river and Just
Still
